Volunteer Center Serving Howard County announces upcoming volunteer info and orientation sessions

The Volunteer Center Serving Howard County hosts monthly disaster volunteer information and orientation sessions to inform community members on how to plan, prepare and effectively serve in times of disaster to improve community preparedness and resiliency. Sessions will be held on Wednesday, January 11; Tuesday, February 7; and Thursday, March 8, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the Columbia Association (CA) Headquarters. Each session will identify local response agencies and inform participants on how they can prepare and train to volunteer effectively after a disaster.

Registration is requested. Please call 410-715-3179 or e-mail Pam@VolunteerHoward.org to register. CA Headquarters is located at 10221 Wincopin Circle in Columbia.

The Volunteer Center Serving Howard County is a service of the Columbia Association and receives funding from the Baltimore UASI, the Columbia Association, the Horizon Foundation and Howard County Government through a grant from the Department of Citizen Services. The mission of the Volunteer Center Serving Howard County is to stimulate and expand volunteerism in the community by connecting people to nonprofit and governmental agencies in order to improve the quality of life for all people in Howard County.
