

OBJECTIVES AND AGENDA FOR FIRST
WORK GROUP MEETING ON NEW COMMUNITY

OBJECTIVES:

1. To acquaint consultants with each other and CRD.
2. To clarify developer's goals and explore parameters for project.
3. To discuss substantive issues and questions raised by CRD in introductory paper.
4. To establish the modus operandi for the one year of planning.
5. To establish the roles and responsibilities of each of the participants and a work program and schedule for the period.

AGENDA:

Thursday evening - November 14 - Belvedere Hotel

Evening	The Challenge and Purpose of the Project	(James W. Rouse)
	The Work of the Meeting	(Don Michael)
	Discussion

Friday - November 15 - Office of CRD

A.M.	The Project Context
	A. The Physical Context and Design Philosophy	(Morton Hoppenfeld)
	B. The Political Context: What is; What might be	(Henry Bain)
	C. The Economic Context	(Robert Gladstone)

Lunch served

P.M.	Reactions of Work Group Members: Exploration of goals and means for attaining them.	(All participants, especially Work Group Members)
------	---	--

Dinner Guests of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Rouse

Saturday - November 16 - Office of CRD

A.M.	Exploration into substantive issues as raised in objectives and questions re: community design
------	---	--

Lunch served

P.M.	Continuation of A.M. Session
	Next Steps:
	A. Selection, subsequent work session dates
	B. Preliminary input assignments (when possible)

4 P.M.	Adjournment
--------	-------------	--