Sponsored by Columbia Art Center and Little Patuxent Review. Free monthly presentations by local artists, poets, actors, musicians and other specialists. For complete listing, please contact Columbia Art Center or visit ColumbiaArtCenter.org.

► Monday, Sept. 19, 7pm

The Maceo Leatherwood Retrospective: Reflections of Family, Life and Culture

This presentation, which is produced by his daughter, poet Vanita Leatherwood, will explore the creative journey of Maceo, a Washington, D.C., native. Having engaged subjects for his art as diverse as human rights, ancestral connections, music and spirituality in nature, Maceo's work is steeped in symbolism. This presentation is a look at not only the story of one man and his craft, but a dialogue about what it means to make an art of living against the grain.

► Monday, Oct. 24, 7pm

Protest Art: Art with a Message

Presentation by Ann Wiker, art historian, artist, and instructor for Howard Community College and Johns Hopkins' Osber program

From Picasso's Guernica to contemporary graffiti, art has often been used as a means of communication. Explore how artists throughout history have used visual imagery to raise attention for political and cultural issues.

► Monday, Nov. 7, 7pm

Hayden Mathews: Magical Places in Maryland

Join Hayden Mathews, regional historian and word weaver, for an illustrated journey to magical places in Maryland that will span the length and breadth of the Old Line State from the surf-washed shores of Assateague Island to Muddy Creek Falls and Finzel Swamp in the rugged western counties. Through the words of Maryland natives, Mathews' personal reflections, and the images of these places, past and present, this program is sure to give you a renewed sense of appreciation for the wealth of beautiful places that can be visited in Maryland. Mathews currently offers programs for all ages that mix natural and cultural history. He also leads educational tours for the Smithsonian Associates.

► Monday, Dec. 5, 7pm

Speak to My Heart: Songs of Joy for the Holidays with Vocalist Denee Barr and Friends

Celebrate an evening of cheer as performer Denee Barr sings seasonal melodies and familiar carols. Enjoy music and songs that are timeless. Let the night carry you away to a place of wonderful festivity.

ART HISTORY LECTURE SERIES AND TOUR

► Held Sept., Oct., Nov. and Dec

Art: Out and About

With Ann Wicker, art historian, artist and instructor for Johns Hopkins' Osber program and Howard Community College

NEW! The best way to view art is in person: getting in front of a painting so you can see the actual texture of the paint, moving around a sculpture so you can view it from every angle, or even in a studio, watching the art as it is being created. This series will bring you up close and personal with famous artworks and with brand new art! Each class has two sessions. For the first session, students will meet the instructor at Columbia Art Center for a preparatory lecture to learn how the art has context within the history of art. For the following session, students will provide their own transportation and meet the instructor at local studios, museums and galleries. Studio visits will include the Baltimore Museum of Art, the National Museum for Women in the Arts and various artists' studios. Sessions will be held on the following dates: Sept. 23 and 30; Oct. 7 and 14; Nov. 11 and 18; Dec. 2 and 16.

PAINT NIGHT

OFFICE ART RESCUE

PAINT NIGHT with Alina Poroshina

For ages 16 and up (Participants under 18 must have a parent or guardian attend.) Create your own paint night party for you and your friends — pick a personal and meaningful design! Great for birthdays or bridal events. Participants take home their creations. Art instruction typically runs two hours, plus one hour for setup, refreshments and cleanup.

Class includes:

Two hours of art instruction

All materials and supplies used for the projects

Use of private studio space for up to three hours

Early reservations are recommended. To schedule your party, please call Columbia Art Center or visit ColumbiaArtCenter.org.

Columbia Art Center is the ideal venue for offices to hold fun team-building painting activities. These art workshops can be held seven days a week, based on availability. Columbia Art Center provides the canvas, easel, brushes, paints and smocks/aprons for your entire team. Catering is welcome or you can bring your own refreshments.

Types of Team Building Painting Activities Offered:

Individual Paintings — Each participant paints and personalizes their own painting with the help of the instructor's step-by-step instructions.

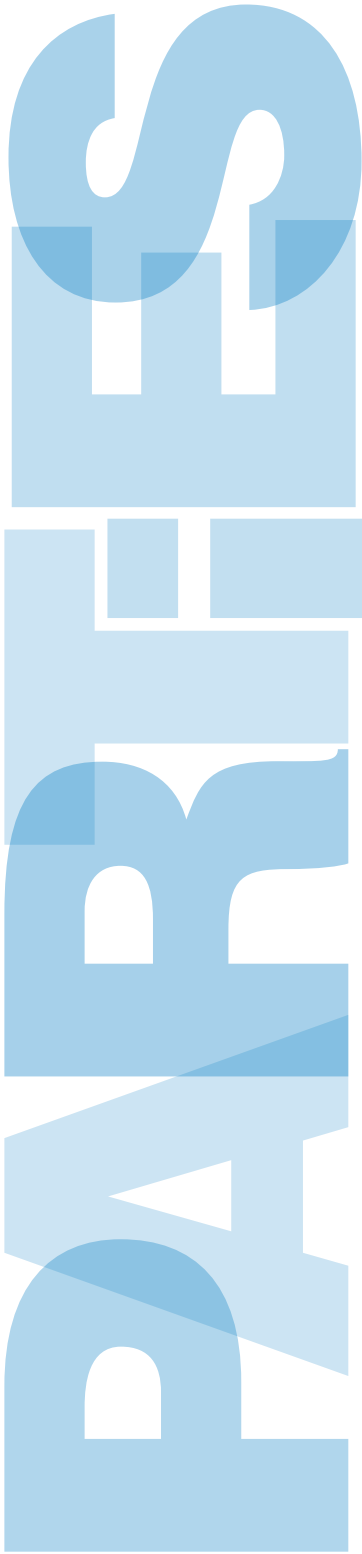

One-Step, Two-Step Painting — Paint one step, then move to a different seat to continue on to the next step.

Collaborative Painting — Everyone in the group contributes to a large, three foot by four foot painting. One collaborative painting recommended for every 10 painters at the event.

These works of art are ideal for displaying on the office wall and for use as a conversation piece.

Mystery Masterpiece —

Our instructor takes you through the painting process step by step. The fun twist with this project is that no one knows what the painting will look like until it is completed.

Each party can be tailored for birthdays, graduations, report card celebrations, family parties or any occasion.

Columbia Art Center parties include invitations, cake, food and beverage, colorful paper products, party themed activities, two party attendants, art instruction, setup and cleanup. Early reservations are recommended. Parties are available Friday 5-7pm, Saturday/Sunday noon-2pm or 2:30-4:30pm. For pricing and more information on these parties and for art parties for adults, visit ColumbiaAssociation.org/artparty or call Kristin Miles, birthday party coordinator, at 410-715-3169 or email Kristin.Miles@ColumbiaAssociation.org.

THAT INSPIRE! NEW PARTIES

YOUTH & TEEN CLASSES

Unless otherwise noted, supplies are included in the cost of tuition for youth classes. Because Columbia Art Center wants students to focus on the activity and not worry about getting messy, it is recommended that they wear old clothes or bring a smock for all activities.

YOUNG ARTIST MASTERY PROGRAM

For ages 6-17

Columbia Art Center's Young Artist Mastery Program offers students the chance to focus on their studies as they hone their artistic abilities. Whether used as a means for creative self-expression or to prepare for further artistic endeavors, these classes and workshops will work to expand participants' skill levels and stretch their creativity while building confidence and artistic sensibility.

Who Should Take This Program: Students ages 6-17 who took or will take classes or workshops at Columbia Art Center starting Fall 2015 through the present session.

Program Description: Students are asked to complete four classes that will enable them to receive a Level 1 Certificate, which includes a free portfolio review and a 25 percent discount on a future class or workshop. Participants who complete eight classes will receive a Level 2 Certificate, which includes a free portfolio review and 50 percent discount on a future class or workshop. Participants who complete 12 classes will receive a Level 3 Certificate, which includes a free portfolio review and a free class.

Register for free for the Young Artist Mastery Program when you sign up and pay for your first class. Classes taken during the Fall 2015, Winter 2016, Spring 2016, Summer 2016 and Fall 2016 sessions can apply to the Mastery Program.

DRAWING SERIES 102: ALL DRAWING MEDIUM

For ages 9-12

With Alina Poroshina

Continuing students welcome! Children love to draw and they do so freely and with great joy. Preadolescents reach a point where they want to achieve new levels of realism in their work. To do this, they must learn to see with an artist's eye. This course introduces methods to help students reach their goals in a fun and productive way. Concentrate on a variety of drawing types — still life, landscape and portraiture — while working with a diverse spectrum of media like graphite, charcoal, chalk pastels and colored pencil. This expands the student's artistic horizon, whether new to art or repeating the class.

GUEST ARTIST WORKSHOP

EXPLORING WATERCOLOR ON YUPO®

Kathy Daywalt

For artists interested in experimenting with watercolor on Yupo®, a plastic substrate for paint. Through demonstrations and practice, you will discover Yupo's unique characteristics and amazing results! You will also learn how to make stamps and employ found objects to incorporate pattern and texture into a composition, and you will explore the addition of linear elements to add detail and tighten compositional elements.

Saturday, Nov. 5, 10am-4pm

$65 Columbia residents/$75 nonresidents

Kathy Daywalt is a prolific working artist with 40 years of successful experience in a variety of media. Her works have been included in numerous juried exhibitions and one-person shows. In 2011, Daywalt began to revisit her original art interest — watercolor. She has been studying the effects of the medium on Yupo polypropylene plastic, originally used for permanent outdoor signs. Her interest in figures and beautifully patterned compositions is evident in these new works. More importantly, her long experience with linocut printmaking has carried over to this new endeavor as she employs artist-made linocut stamps as well as found objects to create her richly textured, patterned paintings.

Class Policies & Procedures

INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY If Howard County public schools are closed due to inclement weather, the Columbia Art Center will not hold daytime adult classes or any youth classes. For information regarding adult afternoon and evening classes and all weekend classes, please call 410-730-0075.

DISCOUNTS Individuals who live or work full-time on Columbia Association-assessed property pay the discounted “Resident” tuition for classes. All others must pay the “Nonresident” tuition. Access to CA facilities and programs may be denied to a Columbia resident (member or non-member) whose property is the subject of a covenant violation referred to the Architectural Resource Committee for action.

SUPPLIES Adult students are responsible for purchasing their own materials for most classes. Refer to course description for clarification or call Columbia Art Center for additional information. A supply list for adult classes will be supplied upon registration.

CANCELLATION AND TUITION REFUNDS Columbia Art Center reserves the right to cancel any class for any reason. In the event a class is canceled, refund of tuition is guaranteed. Tuition cannot be credited, prorated or refunded after the first day of class. No prorated tuitions will be given; full tuition is required. If you have any questions about the content or focus of the class, please contact Columbia Art Center before the class begins.

ZERO TOLERANCE POLICY Columbia Art Center has a zero tolerance policy for class disruption and aggression toward staff, instructors, students and visitors. Any type of aggressive behavior may be grounds for removal from Columbia Art Center. Columbia Art Center reserves the right to suspend or terminate class participation and usage of Columbia Art Center for inappropriate or abusive behavior or class disruption. No credits or refunds will be granted.

Registration & Admission

Admission is open to everyone. Advanced registration is required and early enrollment is advised to reserve a space in each class and to avoid possible cancellation. A class will be canceled if minimum enrollment is not met three days prior to the class beginning. Several classes have prerequisites. Please read course descriptions carefully.

PAYMENT Full payment must accompany the registration form and is required to hold your space in class. Registration and payment may be done in person, by mail, or over the phone. Tuition can be paid by check or credit card (Mastercard, Visa, American Express and Discover accepted). Please make check payable to Columbia Art Center.

Release, Waiver of Liability and Indemnity Agreement

I hereby agree with Columbia Association Inc. (CA) to the following by affixing my signature below on this date, _____ 201__ .

In connection with my participation in Columbia Association's program (the "Program"), I understand and acknowledge the nature and extent of the activities that will be involved in the Program and assume the risk inherent in such activities on behalf of myself. I voluntarily waive any and all claims, costs, liabilities, expenses (including attorney's fees), and judgments against CA, its directors, officers, employees, servants, subcontractors and agents and hereby release, excuse and discharge CA, its directors, officers, employees, servants, subcontractors and agents from all claims, cost, liabilities, expenses (including attorney's fees), and judgments which may arise out of my participation in the Program and all aspects attendant thereto. The undersigned further agree(s) to indemnify and hold CA, its directors, officers, employees, servants, subcontractors and agents harmless from any and all claims, damages, actions, liabilities, expenses (including attorney's fees) and judgments which may arise out of my participation in the Program.

Permission is hereby granted for Columbia Association Inc. (CA) to use any photographs or video footage that include images of me and/or members of my family for any CA promotional material or for any other purposes as CA may deem appropriate, including advertising and publicity. I waive any right to inspect or approve the finished product, including written copy that may be created in connection with such images. I hereby release CA and its legal representatives from any and all claims and liability in regard to said photographs or video footage remedies that I, and if applicable, my spouse, the minor, or a legal guardian for the minor might have now or in the future.
