

meanings that this summer had for me and Joe Lee as well, would be lengthy and probably even sound a bit maudlin. I'll spare you that.

Suffice it to say that we will forget

I look forward to the years ahead when I can add my small contribution to the building of better communities, better even than what we saw.

This seems to be the life ambition of us both - you are creating the opportunity for its fulfillment.

Lee joins me in this thanks.

Our warmest regards to Libby, Robin, Jimmy and Teddy
